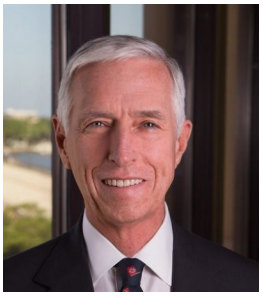
GUNSTER
FLORIDA'S LAW FIRM FOR BUSINESS

Bernard R. "Robin" Baker, III



Overview

Robin is president of Premier Title Company, a real estate title agency that handles residential transactions and is an affiliate of Gunster. He has practiced law in the fields of private clubs, golf operations and management, and golf development for over 25 years.

Robin has worked on golf and club projects as far north as the state of Washington, and as far south as the Republic of South Africa. He has represented both large for-profit golf course owner operators and individual member owned truly private clubs. He has worked on club membership program design (both equity and non-equity), purchases and sales, turnovers and all other areas of private club and golf facility ownership and operation, including the unique and sensitive areas of member relations and member discipline.

He is a recognized speaker, author and teacher and has served as a director of the National Club Association, the largest organization of private clubs in America, whose constituent clubs have over 350,000 members. He is active in community and charitable affairs and has been recognized by the Florida Bar for his public service.
