Overview

Ana focuses on complex commercial litigation matters and is a leader within Gunster's eDiscovery practice. She understands that client business needs, litigation management and discovery strategy must all co-exist harmoniously. She strives to be an attorney young associates love to work for, judges love to hear from, and opposing counsel look forward to seeing at a meeting. She has been involved in the largest eDiscovery matters at the firm and focuses on strategic efficiency rather than boil-the-oceans options. Notably, Ana has earned the CEDS (Certified E-Discovery Specialist) designation from the Association of Certified E-Discovery Specialists, and is involved with the organization's local chapter, ACEDS Jacksonville.

Ana graduated from the University of Miami in 1992 and attended law school at New York University, graduating in 1996. She loves Cuban cooking, travelling with her kids and deep-sea fishing.
