Overview

Anely Nunez is an attorney in the firm's eDiscovery practice group. As a seasoned eDiscovery Counsel, Anely specializes in providing invaluable advice and expertise to corporations navigating the complex world of eDiscovery. With a passion for optimizing the discovery process and leveraging cutting-edge technology, she is committed to helping clients achieve efficient, cost-effective, and defensible solutions.

Prior to joining Gunster, Anely collaborated with top-tier law firms and Fortune 100 corporations on their eDiscovery processes and operations. Anely worked closely with a large corporate in-house eDiscovery department to implement Relativity Active Learning workflows to optimize document review, further streamlining the discovery process and reducing costs. This experience has honed her ability to tailor strategies and solutions to align with specific corporate objectives.

Anely's expertise is further validated by her professional certifications, including the CEDS (Certified E-Discovery Specialist) designation from the Association of Certified E-Discovery Specialists. She is also a Relativity Expert, a Relativity Certified Administrator, and a Brainspace Specialist.
