Overview

Anne Coxe Mesrobian is an associate in Gunster's Jacksonville office where she focuses her practice on a variety of business litigation and construction litigation matters.

Anne has experience assisting major publicly traded companies and financial institutions with investigations and prosecutions by domestic and foreign law enforcement and regulatory agencies, including the U.S. Department of Justice, Securities & Exchange Commission, Commodity Futures Trading Commission, FINRA, and others.

Prior to joining Gunster, Anne was an associate at the New York office of a large international law firm, where she practiced litigation and international arbitration, with a particular focus on government investigations and enforcement actions. Additionally, Anne served as a law clerk to the Honorable Katherine Polk Failla of the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of New York.
