Overview

Connor J. Stone is an associate attorney in Gunster's commercial and business litigation practice group. Connor has extensive litigation experience and an appellate background from his judicial clerkship at Florida's Third District Court of Appeal with the Honorable Bronwyn Miller. Connor's legal research, writing, and advocacy skills have helped clients in securing many successful outcomes in a wide variety of litigation fields. He pursues pragmatic approaches to complex legal issues in an effort to maximize value for his clients and their needs.

Growing up on Sanibel Island, Connor is a Southwest Florida native, and has close ties to the community.
