Overview

Craig Trigoboff is an experienced counselor, trial and appellate lawyer. With 30 years of broad practice experience, he strives to help his clients achieve their goals in the boardroom, courtroom, arbitration or mediation setting. Craig's goal is to be pragmatic and direct; and he remains focused on balancing an effective litigation plan with the client's economic considerations.

Craig handles substantial complex commercial litigation matters-representing diverse clients in the areas of healthcare, employment and labor, real estate, consumer transactions, probate and professional malpractice. He is experienced in state, federal and appellate courts throughout the state.

Craig also mediates cases on court appointment or agreement between counsel, having completed the 40-hour Florida Supreme Court required course in 2009.
