Overview

Donna is a 30+ year veteran paralegal whose skill set includes complex commercial litigation, creditors' rights, special assets and related practice areas. She is an analytical thinker and an independent, organized self-starter who can work under tight deadlines and handle multiple projects simultaneously. Donna's longevity in the legal profession has provided her with a diverse background and history upon which to draw for the benefit of current clients.

Donna understands the sensitivity and discretion needed to communicate with clients. She often serves as a liaison between the client and attorney, allowing information to be exchanged efficiently so the client knows everyone is working together toward their best interest and the best possible outcome of their case.
