Overview

Glenn Waldman has been practicing law for more than four decades and leads Gunster's Alternative Dispute Resolution practice group. He is a full-time arbitrator, mediator and court-appointed master or magistrate.

Glenn holds the maximum rating “AV” (pre-eminent) by the Martindale-Hubbell® Law Directory. An “AV” rating indicates that a lawyer has reached the height of professional excellence, has practiced law for many years, and is recognized by his peers (lawyers and judges) for the highest levels of skill and integrity. He is similarly rated the maximum 10.0 (“Superb”) by the AVVO ratings guide.

Glenn has been a certified mediator (state and federal court) since 1991, and a longstanding nationwide arbitrator (certified by the American Arbitration Association, American Health Law Association, AIDA Reinsurance and Insurance Arbitration Society, International Institute for Conflict Prevention & Resolution, and the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority). His arbitration and mediation practice is primarily devoted to a broad range of commercial disputes, including general contract and business matters, large payor/provider health care disputes, intellectual property claims, shareholder and employment disputes (including restrictive covenants), real estate and construction, and probate and estate disputes. He also serves on the faculty of the American Arbitration Association and the American Health Law Association in which he provides training and continuing education to other arbitrators. Effective July 2024, Glenn was also appointed to a three-year term as a leadership Member on the Dispute Resolution Service Review Board for the American Health Law Association.

Glenn also serves as an expert witness on issues of claims for, or defenses to, attorneys’ fees and, separately, the standard of care for attorneys in Florida in matters of professional liability.

Finally, Glenn is frequently appointed by courts to serve as a Special Master, General Magistrate, Custodian and/or Attorney Ad Litem in complex disputes.
