Overview

Martin Press was the first board certified tax attorney in the state of Florida.

He has served tax clients in planning, international issues and tax controversies. Prior to becoming a tax lawyer, he was employed by three of the national CPA firms.

In 2014 and 2018, Martin had three highly noted tax cases, including U.S. v. Clarke, U.S. Supreme Court and U.S. v. Zwerner, a highly publicized international tax related case, and Dynamo Holdings in the U.S. Tax Court.

Martin is a frequent speaker on tax matters at the ABA Section on Taxation, the Annual National Institute on Criminal Tax Fraud and the National Institute on Tax Controversy. He has been quoted in Time Magazine, the Wall Street Journal, USA Today and the Los Angeles Times, and has appeared on ABC News, Fox Business News and Swiss National Television. He is frequently quoted on matters involving voluntary disclosure of offshore accounts, identity theft and fraud.

Martin serves as a trustee of Nova Southeastern University, and is chairman emeritus of the board of Nova Law School. In 2018, Mr. and Mrs. Press donated to Nova Southeastern University the new Health Professions Division Library that bears their names. The award winning Martin and Gail Press Health Professions Division Library serves the medical schools, dental and nursing schools and other health related colleges.
