Overview

Megan Moon joined Gunster in 2013, after graduating second in her class from the University of Florida Levin College of Law. Megan is a shareholder and member of the Business Litigation and E-Discovery practice groups, where she focuses her practice on complex commercial litigation, including contract disputes, professional liability defense, employment disputes and torts defense, as well as governmental affairs and telecommunications litigation. She is also skilled in assisting clients with electronic discovery, document review management and data organization and collection.

Megan currently serves on the board of governors for the Young Lawyers Section of the Jacksonville Bar Association; on the advisory board for the Winston YMCA; as membership chair for the Jacksonville Bar Association; and previously on the board of the Association of Certified E-Discovery Specialists (ACEDS) in Jacksonville. A Florida Trend 2019 “Up & Comer” and Florida Super Lawyers 2019 “Rising Star,” Megan is also listed among the 2019 JAXMVPs, a leadership class hosted by the Jacksonville Jaguars Foundation, and is a member of Leadership Jacksonville’s

Class of 2019. She received the Jacksonville Business Journal's “40 Under 40” honor in 2018.
