Overview

Timothy J. McGinn is a shareholder in Gunster's Business Litigation practice group. His practice focuses on the litigation and resolution of complex civil disputes.

Timothy strives to work closely with his clients to understand their businesses and tailor his counsel to their specific needs. He has experience defending corporate clients against breach of contract, breach of fiduciary duty, antitrust, civil racketeering, and securities fraud claims in federal and state courts. He has also spearheaded clients' investigations of alleged insider trading, self-dealing, and other financial misconduct.

Timothy is committed to providing legal services to indigent and not-for-profit clients. He has represented victims of domestic violence in divorce, custody and other proceedings at trial and on appeal. He received the Legal Aid Society's "Pro Bono Publico Award" for these efforts in 2012. Before joining Gunster, Timothy was a litigator in the New York office of a large international law firm.
