Overview

Timothy J. McGinn is a shareholder whose practice focuses on the litigation and resolution of complex civil disputes. He litigates aggressively and with an eye toward resolving each case as soon as possible so his clients can devote their time and resources to the things that matter to them. As defense counsel, Tim has a strong track record of winning early dismissal for his clients through motion practice prior to trial.

Tim has obtained favorable outcomes for his clients in numerous defamation actions. He is also a frequent speaker and panelist on First Amendment issues.

In addition to this advocacy, Tim has counseled clients on a range of high-stakes matters. He has an established track record defending corporate clients against antitrust, civil racketeering, securities fraud, breach of contract, and tort claims in federal and state courts. He has also spearheaded client investigations of alleged insider trading, self-dealing, and other financial misconduct.

Tim is committed to providing pro bono legal services to indigent and not-for-profit clients. He has represented victims of domestic violence in divorce, custody, and other proceedings at trial and on appeal. He received the Legal Aid Society's "Pro Bono Publico Award" for these efforts in 2012.

Representative Matters
